Exhibition “Artworks by Police Officers 2015”

The exhibition “Artworks by Police Officers 2015”, which is organised by the Macao Public Security Police Force (PSP) and co-organised by the Macao Foundation, will be held from 3 to 9 August at the Exhibition Hall of the UNESCO Centre of Macao located at Alameda Dr. Carlos d'Assumpção, Macao.

The exhibition will feature representative works by the students of the PSP art, calligraphy and painting class including two-dimensional works such as sketches, watercolour paintings, acrylic paintings, oil paintings, Chinese paintings, calligraphy and also three-dimensional works such as wooden art pieces, ceramic, stained glass and tie-dye artworks. Our Force hopes that, through the exhibition platform at the UNESCO Centre, more members of the public and visitors can know more about the artistic standard of police officers in Macao. Police officers can also showcase their healthy quality of life and have artistic interactions and exchanges with the public with a view to promoting communication and mutual trust between the police and the public as well as building a better community together.

The general public and visitors are welcome to the exhibition and admission is free. Our Force wishes to express its heartfelt gratitude for the support of different sectors.
