The 17th International Postage Stamp Design Contest – Awards for Macao Contestants

The result of The 17th International Postage Stamp Design Contest with the theme – Sharing Hope, organized by Korea Post was announced. This year, a total of 93 design works were submitted through the mailing by Communications Museum. We would like to extend our congratulations to Cheong Pok Man, student of Pui Ching School and Wong Chan, designer, whose works have won the Special Award of Youth Category and the Honorable Mention of General Category respectively. Communications Museum will continue to work hard on promoting this international activity in order to enhance international cultural exchange and stamp collection, as well as to encourage stamp collection.
